

For All Those Sleeping, If I Wanted Your Two Cents

Oh with your arms around me
Time seems to move so slow
Oh with your arms around me
I really think I know

Do you feel this?
I'm right here with you
This may be hard to understand
But it's the way we'll make it through the day
We haven't time to waste on anything

I need you to be here right now
And feel my chest, how it pounds
And hear my voice as it sounds right now
Call me crazy but baby maybe

Oh with your arms around me
Time seems to move so slow
Oh with your arms around me
I really think I know

So let go, so let go

Don't you see this?
I'll never leave you
This may be hard to understand
But it's the way we'll make it through the day
We haven't time to waste on anything

Maybe you're the reason I try
You're the reason I like awake
Passing the time forgetting who I am
This is who I am

Oh with your arms around me
Time seems to move so slow
Oh with your arms around me
I really think I know
Oh with your arms around me
I really think I know

So let go
So let go
So let go
