

For Felix, Walk Away

Never did anything to break you down
At least nothing that so was bad you know
And its only cause I'm jealous of him now
An empty bed in every town and in every place I go to
I dream
That the sheets on your side will someday be warmed
So make amends
I've said my prayers and I'll say them again tenfold
If just once you would smile at me once again
I'll cross my fingers and tell you I was wrong a hundred times
If its time I need well I've got all the time this world can give to you
So walk away just walk away and I hope you think of me one future day
Cause I wont call
I'll never call
I'll wait forever
Just walk way'
Never did anything to break you down
atleast nothing that so was bad you know
And its only cause I'm jealous of him now
An empty bed in every town and in every place I go to I dream
That the sheets on your side will someday be warmed
So walk away just walk away
I've got like eighty years in front of me
To wait for you to pass my way again
