

Forever Slave, Equilibrium

Alice:

Darkness you got my soul
I feel you across my veins,
my heart is getting cold,
guide me through eternity,...

The Oracle:

Darkness I got your soul
I feel you across my veins,
your heart is getting cold,
I will guide you through eternity,...

Alice:

Run away,
my sacrifice is just...
My life and my sins are silence

My secrets are in my mind
My life is not secure

The Oracle:

Now you'll be born in me,
the night will be our day, you will learn to feel the real life,...

Alice:

Run Away,
I want to be free
My life is an imperfect dream

My secrets are in my mind
My life is not secure

In the lost night
Souls are flying so far I saw a dark way you were crying, I was faraway

The equilibrium is broken Your sacrifice destroyed our country you won a point in your goals we lost all, Alice saves us

Travel to a city
The name is Tenebra warrior monks are their guardians discover their secrets. Alice will save us
