

Fourplay, Trust

One wrong step is all I take to this mistake
And now I won't trust this unruly heart
No I won't trust this unruly heart

And I've said too much
I might be losing touch
And now I won't trust this unruly heart
No I won't trust this unruly heart
I won't

And it's one false move and you're dead

Oh false idol I'm on my knees
Misguided fool
For some sweet release
And chance the door to set me free
