

Fra Lippo Lippi, Stitches & Burns

People say that I'm a fool
Well I don't know
At least I found out
What it takes to be strong
& I was dreaming all day long
A drifting cloud
With eyes wide open
I would choose not to see

Chorus
Now I don't want
To see you any more
Don't wanna be the one
To play your game
Not even if you smile
Your sweetest smile
Not even if you beg me
Darling please.

Say good morning to the world
I hope you like it
Take good care of all those Things that we had
I've been looking for a way
For too long now
Seems like everything
Must come to an end.

Repeat Chorus

Time after time
Nothing that I can do
Knowing your ways and loving your ways
But not getting through at all
Day after day
Leaving the past behind
Coming to terms with stitches and burns learning to fly again

Repeat Chorus
