

Fragma, Toca's Miracle (2008)

if your gonna save the day and your hearing what i say i feel your touch , your kiss is not enough and if you believe in me dont think my loves for free i wont take nothing less than a deeper love

(chorus)
let me tell you , you
you know
IIIIIIII, i need a miracle
i need a miracle
its more than physical what i need to feel from you tell me that you understand and you take me as i am youll always be the one to give me everything just as i thought no-one cares your the answer to my prayers you lift my spirits high come on and rescue me

you know

you know
what i need to get me through

heyyyyyy ,
i need a miracle , i need a miracle ohhhhhh ohhhhhh,
i need a miracle , i need a miracle

you know

you know
