

Frank Black, Are You Headed My Way?

Well, it seems about my whole life
I've been kind of depressed
I think I like the concept
But it sure is a mess

Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way to the golden land?
Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way?
Well, maybe there we will understand

Are you headed my way?
My brain got washed
What I've got to debunk
So I got another bad

And I threw it in the trunk
Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way to the golden land?
Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way?
Well, maybe there we will understand
Are you headed my way?

This town is for the birds
And they've been squawking at me
I've got to fly away
Because I've got to be free

Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way to the golden land?
Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way?
Well, maybe there we will understand
Are you headed my way?

I'll be your honey love
You'll be my Turkish delight
A blast across the bean
And we can drive all night

Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way to the golden land?
Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way?
Well, maybe there we will understand
Are you headed my way?
Are you headed my way?
And if it don't go just like we planned
Well, maybe there we will understand
