

Frank Sinatra, If I Should Lose You

(L.Robin, R.Rainger)

[Recorded April 17, 1954, New York]

If I should lose you, the stars would fall from the sky
If I should lose you, leaves would wither and die
The birds in May-time - they'd sing a mournful refrain
And I would wander around - hating the sound of rain
With you beside me, the rose would bloom in the snow
With you beside me, no winds of winter would blow
I gave you my love - and I was living a dream
But living would seem - in vain if I
(Hating the rain - if I)
(All is in vain if I)
If I ever lost you
