Frank Sinatra, Summer Wind

(H. Meier, H. Bradtke, J. Mercer)

[Recorded May 16, 1966, Hollywood]

The summer wind, came blowin' in from across the sea It lingered there to touch your hair and walk with me All summer long we sang a song and then we strolled that golden sand Two sweethearts and the summer wind

Like painted kites, those days and nights, they went flyin' by The world was new beneath a blue umbrella sky Then softer than a piper man one day it called to you I lost you, I lost you to the summer wind

The autumn wind and the winter winds, they have come and gone And still the days, those lonely days, they go on and on And guess who sighs his lullabies through nights that never end My fickle friend, the summer wind

The summer wind Warm summer wind Mmm, the summer wind
