

Frank Zappa, A Few Moments With Brother A. W

Frank Zappa (lead guitar, synthesizer, vocals)

Ike Willis (rhythm guitar, synthesizer, vocals)

Mike Keneally (rhythm guitar, synthesizer, vocals)

Bobby Martin (keyboards, vocals)

Ed Mann (vibes, marimba, electronic percussion)

Walt Fowler (trumpet, flugel horn, synthesizer)

Bruce Fowler (trombone)

Paul Carman (alto saxophone, soprano saxophone, baritone saxophone)

Albert Wing (tenor saxophone)

Kurt McGettrick (baritone saxophone, bass saxophone, contrabass clarinet)

Scott Thunes (electric bass, mini-moog)

Chad Wackerman (drums, electronic percussion)

[This is spoken with the style and accent of an evangelist preacher from the southern United States]

Thank you very much, Mr. Zappa.

Ah, I'm very pleased to be here on behalf of the Administration-- the most powerful government in t

I think, from the beginning, to say that this is going to be balanced, when he has this lingerie up h

It's people like Mr. Frank Zappa that kept the Senate from being able to send arms to the democrat

And I want the elected official, Mr. Charlie Sanders the Democrat, to remember that "Democr

Friends, these forms cost money. And this money could be going towards a more powerful military.

And I just want you to know that tonight, I love him anyway. Because I've got love in my heart, an

Sunday--that's not fair, Mr. Zappa--Sunday night used to be a night in which Americans would get t

I ask you, Mr. Frank Zappa, what kind of man can name a child Moon Unit? What kind of man can

And I'm comin' here tonight because I want to share with him, just the same way we're going to giv

And I'm gonna ask the power and the joy and the power of the living king of kings, and a lot of you