Joe: (to himself as he walks out of prison)

I'm out at last Boy, the world sure looks different Wow...there's hardly anything fun to do Since they made music illegal
But I'm hooked
I got the habit
I've got to have it
I need to play
But there's no musicians anymore
They're all gone
Wait! I've got it!
I'll be sullen and withdrawn I'll dwindle off into the twilight realm
Of my own secret thoughts I'll walk through the parking lot In a semicatatonic state And dream of guitar notes
To go with the loading-zone announcements.

JOE wanders through the world which by then has been totally epoxied over, carefully organized, v

Turn it down!
Turn it down!
I have children sleeping here!
Don't you boys know any nice songs?
I'm calling the police!
I did it!
They'll be here... shortly!
I'm not joking around anymore!
You'll see now!
There they are...
they're coming!
Listen to that mess,
would you!
Every day this goes on around here!
