

Frankenbok, Victims

I dont want your problmes, I'm so sick of this
Cos all i see is dirty green hands
You can't blieve what you see
The understanding is that we are the victim!

You say what you want,
Then leave the pieces

Hey we are the victims
Hey we are the victims
Hey we are the victims
We'll pick up your pieces!

I dont want your problems, I'm part of it
The reason you are kicking and screaming like a BITCH!
Rather watch you suffer, watch you drown inside
The hatred and the shame you project into our eyes.
