

Frankenstein Drag Queens From Planet 13, Evil I

Well, God gave us a big black eye
And the Devil puts a steak on it
And says it's alright
They tell us we must choose a side
Well why does the darker one
Say it's alright

Well, the world's telling us we're doomed
And they don't approve of pointy hats
And magic with brooms
Well, now I've got a question for you
Well, if God's so fucking perfect
Why did he fuck up on you?

They tell us if we pray
That when we die
We will go to a better place
Well I don't wanna do
The things I should
'Cause it feels good to be evil
'Cause evil is good

Well, you go to church on Sunday
To wash away the shit
You did the past 6 days
Now you're on your knees to pray
Well we pray your stupid God
Will come and take you away
