

Frankenstein Drag Queens From Planet 13, Give

Bring her to the castle
She's putting up a hassle
Baby's gonna die at 12 midninght tonight
We'll give her to the monsters
And witness all the horror
Baby's gonna die, right before our eyes

And we'd die for you, and we'd die

Give her to the monsters, baby's gonna die
Baby's gonna die, die

There's no need to cry
Because you've been chosen to die
So scream all you want
No one will get to you in time
We'll do a stupid chant
And a stupid little dance
Then we will proceed
To chop off your head
