

Frankie Negron, So Wonderful (English)

Oh yea hey hey....

You could've walked right by
You could've been like a breeze and just blew through my life
You could've been cold, distant and sole... completely untouchable

Oh, yea

One day you turned around, oh baby
And so did my life
All at once i was so in love, and it felt so true
The thing I'd said that I'd never dooooo

Why'd you have to be so wonderful
Why'd you have to go and change my world
When I heard your voice whisper there you are
It was music to my heart....

Why'd you have to be so right for me
Give me back my faith undeniably
Why'd you have to touch my soul,
A love I've never known
Why'd you have to go and beeee so wonderful
Sooooooo wonderful

I had it all figured out,
Just exactly when my place in life was about
I knew it was true,
in my little world that love was impossible
Oh yes I did
And I was okay with that
And willing to live with the fact
That I would just go on, made of stone
One kiss from you said I was wrong

Why'd you have to be so wonderful
Why'd you have to go and change my world
When I heard your voice whisper there you are
It was music to my heart....

Why'd you have to be so right for me
Give me back my faith undeniably
Why'd you have to touch my soul,
A love I've never known
Why'd you have to go and beeee so wonderful
Sooooooo wonderful

Why'd you have to go and be be soooo wonderful
Oh...yeah...
