

Frankie Rose, Molotov in Stereo

Oh, it's just another day
All that they will say
The truth is that they'll never learn and we are forced to watch it burn
And push darkness away

Turning on the radio, Molotov in stereo (It's not too late)
It will be fine, it will be fine (You can't stop it now)
Turning on the radio, Molotov in stereo (It's not too late)
It will be fine, it will be fine (You can't stop it now)

Oh, it's just another day
All that they will say
We'll eat the rich and Wall Street brats, won't end the world as hungry rats
And push darkness away

Turning on the radio, Molotov in stereo (It's not too late)
It will be fine, it will be fine (You can't stop it now)
Turning on the radio, Molotov in stereo (It's not too late)
It will be fine, it will be fine (You can't stop it now)

Turning on the radio, Molotov in stereo (It's not too late)
It will be fine, it will be fine (You can't stop it now)
Turning on the radio, Molotov in stereo (It's not too late)
It will be fine, it will be fine (You can't stop it now)
