

Franklin Daniel, Angel Of Paradise

As I look out at the beautiful sea, I know you and I were meant to be.
I only wish I could make you see how much your love means to me.
I wish I could walk up to you, and speak the words that lovers do.
But now I'm feeling sad and blue, wishing that I could be with you.
So I open my thoughts, And close my eyes,
Without your love, I just can't survive
If you were the tear in my eye,
I wouldn't cry for I fear I might lose you
You're my angel of paradise, I'm deeply in love with you
Darling, my love you're beautiful indeed ,
Fill my desires You're all that I need
My intentions are good I need you tonight,
Let the fire in your eyes light up my life
There's nothing low in love, From earth to the heavens above
If I am the clouds above I'll shower you with all my love
So I open up my heart, and show my feelings
Without your love, it's not worth living
If you were the tear in my eye,
I wouldn't cry for I fear I might lose you
You're my angel of paradise, I'm deeply in love with you
