

Franklin Daniel, Long Road To Heaven

Come hold my hand. You know this journey could be long.
You gotta understand, that together we belong
Don't you know that I've missed you girl?
You're always on my mind; you're my world
Baby please tell me that you really care
And you know that I'll always be there
Wait, wait for me, it's gonna be a long road, a long road to heaven
Stay by me, it's a long road, a long road to heaven
I know that it's a long shot for us
We came this far so let's take our chances Everything I have I gladly sacrifice I see heaven, when I look into your eyes
I loved the world when I found you Oh thank you God! Thank you!
