

Franky Perez, Leave Me Alone

All my life
I've been waiting for my luck to change
I close my eyes and turn to prayer
Hoping that someone might hear

Cause I'm back on the outside again
And I don't think that I want back in
Yes I'm back on the outside again
And I don't think that I can

Hang on I must move on
Don't you lead me on
Just leave me alone
Hang on I must move on
Don't you lead me on
Just leave me alone

In my life I've made mistakes
I've dropped the ball I've lived in shame
I close my eyes and say a prayer
When I wake up will you be there?

Cause I'm back on the outside again
And I don't think that I want back in
Yes I'm back on the outside again
And I don't think that I can

Hang on I must move on
Don't you lead me on
Just leave me alone
Hang on I must move on
Don't you lead me on
Just leave me alone

I am alone
On broadway and 54th
I can't believe my eyes
There's a hole in my skyline

Hang on I must move on
Don't you lead me on
Just leave me alone
Hang on I must move on
Don't you lead me on
Just leave me alone

You don't know me
You don't know me
You ain't got nothing on me
Step up
Give me what you got
I'm gonna take you down
