

Fred, Here Before

HERE BEFORE

I've been here in this place before and I'm sure that I'll be here again and though we have never met I feel that you'll have a plan for me and if you're looking for me I'll be fooling 'round with time if it's on my hands unless there's something you can do to make me change my mind make me understand and if you say it won't you please please be afraid because there's something 'bout the world being purposely made and only foolish folk do think put their head on the line and I've been foolish for an age way before my time

if I was like you I'd know what to say every time I come in touch with this and no one I know could chart out my route could ever come close to spilling words like you do
