

Freddie Hart, Here I Am

I wandered from your arms enchanted by another's charms
But now too late I see that you're the one I need
Here I am again on my knees again
Begging please again here I am
I made you cry again I broke your heart again
Oh please forgive my sin here I am

I was weaken such a fool to walk away from love and you
But I can love your hurt away if you'll just let me stay
Here I am again...
