

Freddie Hart, Hurt Feels So Good

The hurt feels so good now I'm no longer alone
The future I'd see now I thought was all gone
Got over the heartache thought I never would Got a new love beside me now the hurt feels so good
Got new tears in my eyes oh but they're tears of joy
What used to be a lonesome me is now a happy boy
I'm no longer lost now like a child in the woods
What the pain was is gone now and the hurt feels so good
Got new tears in my eyes...
