

Freezpop, Tender Lies

yeah, i am blinded by your smiles yeah, i would follow you for miles your profile, ooh it shines so bright yeah, you are in my heart tonight, tonight tender lies, keep telling me tender lies keep feeding me bedroom eyes

and your tender lies

your features couldn't be more right there in the silver light tonight i know i shouldn't stay too long 'cause everything, it will go wrong, go wrong

keep feeding me bedroom eyes
and your tender lies
tender lies, keep telling me tender lies
keep feeding me bedroom eyes
and your tender lies

would that you loved me
tell me you want me

i lie awake and think of you hoping that my dream will come true i want to have you for my own don't leave me waiting all alone, alone

keep feeding me bedroom eyes
and your tender lies
tender lies, keep telling me tender lies
keep feeding me bedroom eyes
and your tender lies
tender lies, keep telling me tender lies
keep feeding me bedroom eyes
and your tender lies
