

Freiheit, Back To The Sunshine

Back to the sunshine of your love
You're the girl I'm dreaming of
Should have never let you go
(So easy)

Maybe you are still around
In a different part of town
Near at hand and yet so far away
Even if I knew just where
Calling up would be unfair
You and I don't have no more to say

Still I feel you ought to know
(I miss you so)
I have nothing left to do
(What can I do)
Every moment I'm alone
There is no place I'm at home
Like I used to be with you

Back to the sunshine of your love
You're the girl I'm dreaming of
Should have never let you go
(So easy)
Back to the sunshine of your eyes
Now I have to realize
Should have never let you go
(So easy)

Looking back I must confess
I said "no" and I meant "yes";
And you started to believe me
I admit that I was wrong
Come on back where you belong
Don't know why you had to leave me

Still I feel you ought to know
(I miss you so)
(What can I do)
Every moment I'm alone
There is no place I'm at home
Like I used to be with you

Back to the sunshine of your love
You're the girl I'm dreaming of
Should have never let you go
(So easy)
Back to the sunshine of your eyes
Now I have to realize
Should have never let you go
(So easy)

Back to the sunshine of your love
You're the girl I'm dreaming of
Should have never let you go
(So easy)
Back to the sunshine of your eyes
Now I have to realize
Should have never let you go
(So easy)

Back to the sunshine of your love
You're the girl I'm dreaming of

Should have never let you go
(So easy)
Back to the sunshine of your eyes
Now I have to realize
Should have never let you go
(So easy)
