

Freiheit, In The Middle Of The Night

When will I finally begin to be what's truly me
Picking up the pieces of the puzzle that is love
For so long I've been waiting contemplating on eternity
Lost in never-never land you found the man in me
For so long

I heard the voices in the wind
I never want that song to end
And in the middle of the night
I held you in the firelight
And in the distance I could see
The shaping of my destiny
And in the middle of the night
I realized that you were mine

Now I can open up my eyes and really start to see
My reflection in your face as true reality
For so long I've been waiting contemplating on eternity
Lost in never-never land you found the man in me
Took so long

I heard the voices in the wind
I never want that song to end
And in the middle of the night
I held you in the firelight
And in the distance I could see (and in the distance)
The shaping of my destiny (I could see)
And in the middle of the night (and in the night)
I realized that you were mine

I heard the voices in the wind
I never want that song to end
And in the middle of the night
I held you in the firelight
And in the distance I could see
The shaping of my destiny
And in the middle of the night
I realized that you were mine
