

Freiheit, Poor Little Boy

She was a teenage lady
Queen of the teasers as everyone knows
She was a pretty baby
Knew how to move from her top to her toes

He was a young believer
Innocent kid, she could tell by his eyes
She hit him like a fever
Knew every trick in the book to surprise

And what she did was magic
She blew him right away
She had a whole lot of love to give
Oh, what a lucky day

Poor little boy, this is now and forever
You're gonna change and remember this day
Poor little boy, you will never forget her
Poor little boy, poor little boy
Poor little boy in a beautiful trap

She was a big temptation
He was a virgin with stars in his eyes
He took her invitation
She was the spider and he was the fly

And what she did was magic
She blew him right away
She had a whole lot of love to give
Oh, what a lucky day

Poor little boy, this is now and forever
You're gonna change and remember this day
Poor little boy, you will never forget her
Poor little boy, poor little boy
Poor little boy in a beautiful trap

He was a young believer
Innocent kid, she could tell by his eyes
She hit him like a fever
He'll never forget her and neither will I

Poor little boy, this is now and forever
You're gonna change and remember this day
Poor little boy, you will never forget her
Poor little boy (little boy)
Poor little boy, poor little boy (oh boy)
Poor little boy, poor little ooh

Poor little boy, this is now and forever
You're gonna change and remember this day
Poor little boy, you will never forget her
Poor little boy, poor little boy

Poor little boy, this is now and forever
You're gonna change and remember this day
Poor little boy, you will never forget her
Poor little boy, poor little boy
