

Freiheit, Wheel Of Love

A golden day has come and gone
Just like traces in the sand
And everything is rollin' on
Turning, and it's easy loving you

And I'm looking for the words to make
All my feelings clear and true
Only words are not enough to say
What I really feel for you

There's a wheel of love
And around it goes
Where it happens to stop
Only heaven knows
There's a wheel of love
In the stars above
You twisted my fate
Now you're turning it into love

And if you win you take it all
So let the luck in love begin
The hands of time upon the wall
Turning, and it's easy loving you

And I'm looking for the words to make
All my feelings clear and true
Only words are not enough to say
What I really feel for you

There's a wheel of love
And around it goes
Where it happens to stop
Only heaven knows
There's a wheel of love
In the stars above
You twisted my fate
Now you're turning it into love

And I'm looking for the words to make
All my feelings clear and true
Only words are not enough to say
What I really feel for you

There's a wheel of love
And around it goes
Where it happens to stop
Only heaven knows
There's a wheel of love
In the stars above
You twisted my fate
Now it's turning around
There's a wheel of love
And around it goes
In the stars above
You twisted my fate
