

Frenzal Rhomb, Guns Don't Kill Ducklings (Duckl

When you see that feathered friend better get out of the way, especially if they're packing a piece better arm yourself today.
It's us or them have to stop them in their tracks,
Always keep watching your back.
It's time to kill not a time to die so load your weapons now,
There's a dark cloud on the skyline better shoot those suckers down.
They're out to get you, you'd better be first.
Give them what they deserve.
Guns don't kill duckling, ducklings kill ducklings
Stop them all they will destroy our whole society,
Guns don't kill duckling, ducklings kill ducklings
they're the biggest threat to your masculinity.
It's not a sport if the other team doesn't want to play.
Need to lend a helping gun don't let them get away.
Pick on someone with a limited I.Q.
start shooting at someone like you.
Guns etc.
They're here to start the fight
look in your sights what do you see?
Is it the innocence you call the enemy or is it a sad reflection on your capacity to deal with your fucked up inbred violent tendencies.