

Frenzal Rhomb, Hakimashita

I have been feeling below par and I can not even find the green I'm feeling under the weather That is to say it's on top of me. I don't feel good today
I can't help it anyway.
I can not help my emissions even if maybe they're a social faux pas gastronomical extradition's
I shouldn't have spent all my time in the bar.
Hakimashita, I've soiled myself again.
My stomachs subsiding it's about time
I'm thinking of returning to duty now Hang on I'm sure that's such a good idea I might return to the bowl,
I don't feel good today
I can't help it anyway
Hakimashita.
Language has never been much a barrier when it applies to this There's not many misunderstandings that arise following a vomit kiss.
