

Freya, Magnifying Glass

Magnifying Glass

Music: Freya / Rune Westberg

Lyrics: Freya

Some loves are bulletproof vests or sedatives

Our love is a magnifying glass
- it makes things big, things big

Some loves are accidents that leave you paralysed
Our love is a calculator that only multiplies, multiplies

It makes the wind blow harder
It makes the rain fall heavier

But it makes good feel so good
It makes the thunder louder
It makes the flood come stronger
But it makes peace more peaceful

Some loves are anaesthesia
- that makes you sleep
Our love is electric chock
- it makes our hearts leap, our hearts leap

It makes the wind blow harder
It makes the rain fall heavier
But it makes good feel so good
It makes the thunder louder
It makes the flood come stronger
But it makes peace more peaceful

I shiver, and I quiver, I quiver when you say my name
Well I never, have you ever felt quite the same?

It makes the wind blow harder
It makes the rain fall heavier
But it makes good feel so good
It makes the thunder louder
It makes the flood come stronger
But it makes peace more peaceful, yeah

It makes the wind blow harder
It makes the rain fall heavier
But it makes good feel so good
It makes the thunder louder
It makes the flood come stronger
But it makes peace more peaceful, yeah
