

From First To Last, Goodbye Waves

There's an ocean out my window
It's puny and it's tears
There's an ocean out my window
It's crashing in my head

Oh sea, you shelter
You dance between my toes
When I feel like I can't move forward
You carry me like a father

Breathing is the hardest thing I do
I'm not the only person in the room
It's hard to mean, to feel like I'm not...
