

From First To Last, Shame Shame

If ignorance is bliss
Eradicate my knowledge of my history
Now meaning is left on my own
I look for a long time
Cross back with your kind
But some things are better left alone
Wake up, lonely, hating my life, alone...
Wake up, lonely, hating my life
Shame, shame on me
Come again
Shame, shame on me
Come again
Just bodies, they brightly scratch
They claw like golden souls
Show pictures you wont see, you'll never know
Just bodies, these golden souls
With pictures, wont delete it
Heaved into the ocean to drown with your brothers, your brothers...
Wake up, lonely, hating my life
Their brothers, brothers...
Wake up, lonely, hating my life
Shame, shame on me
Come again
Shame, shame on me
Come again
Come again
Come again
Come again
Oh shame, shame on me
Come again
Shame, shame on me
Come again
Shame, shame on me
Come again
Oh shame on me
Come again
