

From Zero, My So-Called Life

Make your first impression
Brace yourself it's who you are
Try to find yourself it takes some time don't be alarmed
A million questions fill your mind
You feel unsatisfied
But don't sit down
It's time to figure out the reasons why that I
Can't seem to find my way back home but I'm trying
This time I think I've gone too far
But I'm trying this time - is this really what you want to be
This time I'm trying
Paint a picture of a place deep inside your mind
Look for answers to the questions and the reasons why
I'm feeling happy and unsatisfied at the same time
So light a cigarette and take a drink and you'll be fine but I
Can't seem to find my way back home but I'm trying
This time I think I've gone too far
And what have you got for me this time
Are you leaving me out to dry
And where have you gone, my so-called life?
'Cause I can't find you anywhere
This time I must make decisions
This time I'm trying
This time make or break
Let loose this dead weight
No room for mistake, You feel me?
