Front Line Assembly, Autoerotic

Understand with reason Cause their ain't no way of pleasin' Cause the thing that's in effect Turns out to be respect

Gotta get up Gotta get down Gotta put the fear In the ground

Also weak in their minds Also fake, also blind Lies and lust and hate In the end it's too late

All the tears that were wept All the friendships that were swept Was it worth it was it swell Only time and death will tell

After all is said and done And we reach the final sum Take Your heart in Your hand And alone You will stand
