

Front Line Assembly, Heaven's Earth

(written and performed by Kristy Thirsk)

I know you want me
But caution inspires
Your tamed indifference
Won't challenge me

Could it, could it be?
Love's what you deny me

This spoiled seduction
Intoxicates thee
So balanced on my halo
You long secretly

Could it, could it be?
Love's what you deny me

Don't deny yourself
'cause I know what you want

You can't deny me
We'll be together
So try to run, love
But you won't get away

Could it, could it be?
Love's what you deny me
