

Front Line Assembly, Unknown Dreams

Walking through my dreams at night
Nothing gives and nothing breaks
Lurid shadows hide the light
Winning is for those who take
Forever

Tomorrow may never come
Whenever

Isn't life fun
Swimming in a world of creeps

A silhouette of the future looms
Whenever
Distant dreams forbidden wounds
Creepy sound in an eerie room
Burnt out light elusive moons

Pray the lord for me to keep
Now I lay my head to sleep
Distorted vision cloud my eyes
Even sleep can't hide my lies
