

Fucked Up, Magic Kingdom

archaic texts feed the occult hoards manifest destiny calls for total war thule society and the runes of von list all brought together by the fist light on the retreat people feel the need for change illness consumes the weak and the sick are born again
you can't defend against magic you can't assess the destruction belief system fails leaves behind a spiritual void hate fills the vacuum and all the world is destroyed
