

Fuel, Gray

Gray, gray, gray...

She watched her father topple
Mother says I should not be
No fool, I am so smart
Still confused
I'm my on head

Running from reality
Shrinks well they smile at me
Blue thoughts went on to be
A lot of times I hurt
For myself

In my eyes are blood
Red don't go away
Colors of the sun
As I saw life sustain
Oh the blood changes everything
At least it seems that way
Looking with red eyes
Rosey cheeks are gray

Aw come on, yeah, gray!

While you pretend to see
For a sully girl
I throw rocks at which
Tried to talk
To grab the sun
Wash your eyes out then
I surpass myself
I fall can't dig deep

In my eyes are blood
Red don't go away
Colors of the sun
As I saw life sustain
Oh the blood changes everything
At least it seems that way
Looking with red eyes
Rosy cheeks are gray

Aw come on...