Full Blown Chaos, Solemn Promise

Think you are alone You have never been more wrong This affliction Kills a piece of us all Drowning inside out Swallow fatal frame Don't hold your breath I swear, you will breathe again This is a promise All I have in my heart Strength for both of us Pull you from the shadows This blight wont take your life Scour the rust from your veins I feel your pain Shedding mortal remains Put your mind at ease You aren't on your own With you all the way Fight this together This is a promise To a fallen friend If you are lost I swear, we will meet again Think you are alone You've never been more wrong This affliction Kills a piece of us all Drowning inside out Swallow fatal frame Don't hold your breath I swear, you will breathe again This is a promise This is a promise All I have in my heart Strength for both of us Pull you from the shadows.
