

Full Scale, Smiles

Roll up! Roll up! The circus is in town They're setting up their big tops on your own sacred ground
They're kissing babies, 100 by the hour
Thinking every last one of you came down in the last April shower

It's all decided before you even step out the door
Before the punch in the face can floor you
And I'm just wondering how
And I'm just questioning now I'm marching peacefully but I wonder for what

I see a smile that is fucking me

Don't fool yourself or others
There's no big brother cover Just the eyes you see with and the ears that you hear with so Just breathe their poison in and spit it out again
And remember what you stand for
'cause that's the most important thing

I see a future
You see the dollar sign as it dangles
