

Fur Patrol, Beautiful

You're so beautiful, you're simply divine
And wasn't God good to me when he made you mine
Your touch makes me shiver
Your smile makes me crawl
Your nothing is better than my simply all

You bring rain and sun when everything's gone
You bring rain and sun when I feel I'm alone
You are rain and sun

I still feel I'm dreaming when I see you inside me
I'm just a no-where with nothing too complex to hide
I'll die when you smile at me, but I
Want you to see
I've always been nothing without you
Now you're nothing with me

You bring rain and sun when everything's gone
You bring rain and sun when I feel I'm alone
You are rain and sun
You are rain and sun

You are the best thing that's happened to me
Since I fell on my face on Tuesday
And this is exactly where I want to be When I'm holding, holding, holding on When I'm holding on, I'm holding on

You're so beautiful
You're so beautiful
You're so beautiful
You're so beautiful
