

Fur Patrol, Lydia

Am I surprised to see you here with Lydia
She's oh so nice and easier to love than I
But no, I won't hold it against her
My baby, my baby
Don't you want me anymore
Her arms are warm
Her legs are wide and so's her smile
She'll take you on
Where I would slap you down and hide
But no, I won't hold it against her

My baby, my baby
Don't you want me anymore
My baby, my baby
Don't you need me anymore

Your lips are cold
He talks too tired
To say goodbye

So take the time to reel me in and wash me out
But treat her right
And no, I won't hold it against her
Against her

My baby, my baby
Don't you want me anymore
My baby, my baby
Don't you need me anymore

Don't you want me
Don't you need me
Don't you love me
Don't you love me anymore
