

Further Seems Forever, Light Up Ahead

Take this heart of darkness
I give it up and all the emptiness I fill it up
The times that I feel nothing
You bring enough
So I can live for something
You lift me up
and all these bad dreams
I wake up to the light
and when I can't see
I wake up to Your eyes
Wake me up

There's a light up ahead
There's a light up ahead
There's a light up ahead
There's a light up ahead

It gets so complicated to live enough (unsure) Turn into what you hated You're breaking up
The times I feel like nothing
You bring enough
so I can live for something
You lift me up
And all these bad dreams
I wake up to the light
and when I can't see
I wake up to Your eyes
wake me up

There's a light up ahead
There's a light up ahead
There's a light up ahead
There's a light up ahead
