

Fury In The Slaughterhouse, No Illusions

so let the rain fall on me if it's gotta be today it's o.k.
and let the fire burn my ass
if it's gotta be today it's o.k.

cause we've got no illusions
cause we've got no illusions

and let the water wash my brain
if it's gotta be today it's o.k.
and if the rivers will run dry if they really want let them try

cause we've got no illusions, ohho cause we've got no illusions...
