

Future Leaders Of The World, Everyday

Trust in me its not a fantasy
Knowing we're right and they're all wrong
We used to push and pull weed get high till we bleed
Tune out the world and just sing our song
If you're all so right why you gotta fight
Kill to unite for so long
Why should I ever compromise what you could never realize
So afraid to be your own in...
Inside of each death a days new breath a test to defy itself again
While whispering sounds educate towns propagating new ways
To feel

In the lost and found I've found pounds treasures through these
Desperate measures social leathers
Just let me feel..

If I could eat the eyes of the heavens
I'd see you through the darkest nights
Wake and try
Not to deny
Who am I stoned
Everyday

So kids come watch the news
And you'll learn to lose like a winner
Get you prescriptions filled
I'll be the sinner for
Your appetite
To consume
For a beggars wealth

Inside of each death a days new breath a test to defy itself again
While whispering sounds educate towns propagating new ways
To feel

In the lost and found I've found pounds treasures through these
Desperate measures social leathers
Just let me feel..
If I could eat the eyes of the heavens
I'd see you through the darkest nights
Wake and try
Not to deny
Who am I stoned
Everyday

Days go by
They sell us lies
But I will try
Everyday

Days go by
They sell us lies
But I will try
Everyday

If I could eat the eyes of the heavens
I'd see you through the darkest nights
Wake and try
Not to deny
Who am I stoned
Everyday

Everyday
