

Futures, Karma Satellite

The truth is in the universe,
Your arms around the sun,
Someday soon we'll lift the curse,
Whatever we become
Flashlights in the corridor,
I'll wait for you to come,
Right now, I couldn't want you more,
It's time to turn and run

If you save me now,
We could lose this crowd,
Get it back somehow,
If you save me, now

A ghost is on the radio,
He's counting down your days,
And now there's nowhere else to go,
No signal you can trace
We'll sleep all night and couldn't speak,
We'll split the world in two,
There's fires burning in the streets,
But now I see the truth

If you save me now,
We could lose this crowd,
Get it back somehow,
If you save me now,
When you close your eyes,
Will you dream tonight of karma satellite?
Get it back somehow,
If you save me now

The truth is in the Universe,
Your arms around the sun,
Someday soon we'll lift the curse,
Whatever we become

If you save me now,
We could lose this crowd,
Get it back somehow,
If you save me now,
When you close your eyes,
Will you dream tonight of karma satellite?
Get it back somehow,
If you save me now

Don't let me leave this place alone,
Say you'll take me home
