

G-Eazy, Angel

you know you made an angel cry
You'll regret it till the day you die
I wish I could be by your side
But there ain't no place for
Someone who makes an angel cry
An angel cry
An angel cry
There ain't no place for
Someone who makes you cry
(Cry, cry) cry
Now it's time to say goodbye
Now it's time to say goodbye
Yeah

I made this song cry, 'cause I can't shed a tear
Recognize the f- up sh- I did to get us here
Nights with my demons, I'm so far away from Heaven here
But I'm still doing me, and sh- been getting better here
New crib, new whips
Vintage Rollie cost more than the latest model
I'm dating models, in my bed it's a naked model
Victory laps, we shakin' bottles
And spray 'em on the foreigners
Life is never boring, made 20 million touring
I wanted to love you, but my career was more important
When it rains it pours, so I got this liquor pouring
It's a band-aid for the pain
That sh- come right back in the morning
You know this, yeah

You know you made an angel cry
You'll regret it till the day you die
I wish I could be by your side
But there ain't no place for
Someone who makes an angel cry
An angel cry
An angel cry
There ain't no place for
Someone who makes you cry
(Cry, cry) cry
Now it's time to say goodbye
Now it's time to say goodbye (yeah)
Yeah

I got my problems, never lied about 'em
And sure enough they showed themselves
And you cried about 'em
Listen
Pursuing vices, what's a life without 'em?
'Cause they'll still be on my side for Them times you weren't on mine
But I knew I wasn't right to always push you to the left
Pretending I'm protecting you from secrets that I kept (kept)
It hurt me when you left, but that sh-, I had to accept
So when you chose to take that step
I gave you nothing but respect
Sometimes I need to hear how much you miss me though, yeah
Sometimes I need to know it's not conditional, ay
I thought I'd be alright, that shit hit different though
But, f- it, either way, I'll never change the way I'm living though
For real, yeah

You know you made an angel cry
You'll regret it till the day you die
I wish I could be by your side
But there ain't no place for
Someone who makes an angel cry
An angel cry

An angel cry
There ain't no place for
Someone who makes you cry
(Cry, cry) cry
Now it's time to say goodbye
Now it's time to say goodbye
