Like I've even completely forgotten drowning
"Make me mad..."
In the sheets, a nail stands on my trigger

Tracing the blazing moon, this kind of night is an unforgivable crime
Until you can't even breathe, I won't let you move an inch

With that hair and that pretty finger, you can unbearably make anyone care
If I'm looked at by those cloudy eyes
Then... I can't be patient any longer

I hold you, and from my lonely travels
To beyond the skies it's "sayounara"
Even a weightless relationship is okay
But still, you're
Absorbed in someone

With that voice and that hot sigh, you can beautifully make anyone your slave
If our wet bodies overlap each other
I can't... be patient any longer

At the ends of the earth where we met
I won't let anyone interfere
Like gravity pulling us towards each other
Someday I'll be your moon

I hold you, and from my lonely travels
To beyond the skies it's "sayounara"
Even a weightless relationship is okay
But still, you're
In the middle of traveling with someone
