So...

Don't say anything

You're just a little bit frightened now so

Don't say anything

You're just a little bit in grief so

In the last act, offer your prayers

The magic of the moon is... shalle a le rilla

Because we whisper in sugary voices

If just one more wish comes true

I want to join hands with you and laugh

Inside of the dream...

Inside of the memory, we'll definitely meet again...

If you can regain your smile

If your laughing self returns

Sadness will turn into kindness

"As that far off memory was..." with all your desires

The magic of the moon is... shalle a le rilla

If you can forget your tears

If you can touch your kindness

I want to sleep near you

If the magic of the moon vanishes

Because good-byes are visited again

If we can follow our feelings right now

I want to join hands with you and dance

Inside of the light, the place we should return to,

Because I'll meet you again somewhere
