

Garbage, Nobody Can Win

Well I set myself up big time this time
With the notion that you try your best then
Everyone wins

But nothing ever goes that smoothly
And it wont end like a movie
Where the good guy always wins

Until you figure out
A way that you can live without
Stories with happy ends

Everyone I know is trying to get by
Fighting all the half-true lies
Nobody can win

They fill you up with expectations
Innovations and predictions that cant
Possibly fly

Cinderellas waiting tables
And the princess never did wake up
Thats how it begins

Until you figure out
A way that you can live without
Stories with happy ends

Well everyone I know is trying to get by
Fighting all the half true lies
Nobody can win
Nobody can win
Nobody can win
